Texas Christian Junior Bull Riding Final

By Julie Smith

God is so Great!! Chaplin J. Grant Smith and I were invited to the TCJBR (Texas Christian Junior Bull Riding) Finals in Andrew, Texas the weekend of October 17 & 18, 2020. On the first day we had about 9 kids and a Grandfather either give their lives to Christ for the first time or rededicated before the event began. Of those kids, we had three that wanted to get baptized the next morning during Cowboy Church there in the arena. Sunday morning Chaplin J. Grant Smith and Pastor Buz Busby baptized Kutter Farrington, Kade Preston, and Xxayden Hernandez, but we were also blessed with fourteen more kids plus two dads once again giving their lives to Christ or rededicating. And Later that evening one more cowboy, Anthony Smith came to us after their rides and with a broken hand and requested to be Baptized the next day before awards on Sunday. It is beyond words how it feels to see all of these kids come down and truly give their lives to Christ. Congratulations to these four new lives in Christ. – Julie Smith (More pictures on page 2)

HAPPY 50TH ANNIVERSARY COWBOYS FOR CHRIST!

Fifty years of ministry is something to celebrate! The West Keystone Chapter of CFC in Pennsylvania hosted a 50th Anniversary Celebration for Cowboys For Christ on November 14, 2020. The event was held at Gallo's Italian Village in New Castle, PA. Guests arrived to elegantly decorated tables, dual slide shows of CFC over the years, a delicious buffet dinner, and a cake commemorating this milestone. The evening began with a blessing from Doug Brenneman, and we enjoyed music by CFC Chaplain Brad Rineholt (Silver Spurs Chapter). Door prizes were awarded, followed by a video by CFC Chaplain Omar Stiefer, "Will You Be A Cowboy For Christ", which depicts the ministry of the founder of CFC, Brother Ted Pressley. This video can be viewed on YouTube and is really worth watching.

A highlight of the evening was the ordination of two new Chaplains, Jerry and Danielle Jernigan from York, PA. We were reminded that the ordination is not the calling, but only a confirmation of the calling already placed on them by the Lord. Jerry and Danielle both read scripture from Isaiah 6:8 and 61:1,2, and gave testimony that they were willing to be used by God wherever He may lead.

Northwest Ministry and Ordination of three new Chaplains

By Dave Harvey

A great time in the LORD and great fellowship and wonderful ministry in the northwest with speaking at Treasure Valley College to the youth equestrian studies students. Saturday Chaplain Pete Blockhan and I was invited to help “Chaplains to be” Amaia and Wade Black and their very capable 3 children move about 125 head of cattle from one section of pasture to some BLM pasture for the fall. We had to cut out the bulls and the mammas with little babies and move them to another pasture. Then Sunday morning to the “Church in the Dirt” in Homedale Idaho where I was blessed to preach and officiate at the Ordination of three new Chaplains. Amaia and Wade Black and Casey McGehee were Ordained as Chaplains. We were blessed with some special singing by Amaia, as well as, Blaine and Molly Lilly who are the pastors of the church. A big thanks to them and all of the cowboys and cowgirls for their hospitality and Christian love. Also, thanks to Chaplain Pete for hosting me for the weekend. GOD bless them all a bunch.

PETE, CASEY, WADE, AMAIA, AND DAVE

Cowboy Chaplain Calvin Kretsinger

It with a sad heart that I announce the passing of Cowboy Chaplain Cal Kretsinger. Brother Cal rode off to be with the LORD October 28, 2020. Brother Cal was a great man of GOD and a great friend of mine, this ministry and especially the Missouri Cowboy For Christ family. He will certainly be missed as he was a hard riding cowboy Chaplain and a great helper to me. Brother Cal has typed many articles, testimonies and letters that have been in the Christian Ranchman over the last 3 or 4 years. He is certainly Heavens gain and our loss. Please keep his wife, Jan and the rest of Cal’s family in your prayers.

CFC Chaplains Joel and Sheryl Nupp (C.H.A.P.S. Chapter) shared experiences they have had while ministering with CFC and gave a charge to the crowd to serve the Lord in all circumstances. Chaplain Dale Brenneman (West Keystone Chapter) gave a message declaring “scars are an outward sign of an inner love” (Romans 5:8) and pointing out that scars are a sign of authenticity and authority (John 20:19-28). To close the celebration, this small portion of the CFC family participated in communion together.

The only disappointment was that John Topper, longtime friend and supporter of CFC, was unable to attend to sing as planned, and Dr. Dave Harvey our current President and Executive Director of CFC was unable to attend to speak to us and celebrate with us. Even though they were greatly missed, the Lord had a lesson for us in this: CFC is not about a man, a chapter, a celebration or gathering. It is about proclaiming Jesus Christ as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, and about working as diligently as we can to fill His Kingdom. As the time grows shorter, let us all double our efforts to make use of every opportunity to proclaim the Name of Jesus Christ to the livestock industry and beyond.

Letters TO The Editor!

Cowboys For Christ,

Thank you for being there for me, through your testimonies and letters I have become a new born again Christian. GOD is good. He is always with me no matter what obstacles come my way. I praise Him every day. A friend has loaned me his Bible to read, but would like my own personal Cowboys For Christ Bible. Thank you for sharing your inspirational thoughts and prayers. Steven in Texas

How Ya'll Doin',

I hope that this reaches you guys in good health & spirits. As Christians we belong to one another for eternity, Amen. The Church is huge and full of beautiful people shooting for a common goal. Over these past couple years my faith has grown abundantly and because of people like you it will continue to prosper. I stumbled across your newsletter (actually two of them) and enjoyed reading them. Then I saw your address and decided to write to get to know you better and hopefully be put on your mailing list and ever better, I would love to begin your Bible correspondence course. Chris in Kansas

Cowboys For Christ,

Thank you for I am now again enjoying a copy of the Christian Ranchman. I hope we continue receiving this publication. It is a great, a great read; full of information, and emotion and direction. Sonshine always, Patty in Iowa

Hello,

We found your Christian Ranchman at a local Pizza Ranch restaurant. We really enjoyed the Biblical encouragement, and we were wondering if we could please have a subscription. Thank you for your time and may God bless your efforts, Kropidlowski Family in Wisconsin

Dear Sirs,

I would like to start getting your Christian newspaper. I used to get it five months ago when I was in prison. I have a Cowboys For Christ Bible that I really enjoy. The Bible is easy to read. Is there a Cowboys For Christ Chapter close? I have some friends that are still locked up; would you send them a Bible and your Christian newspaper. If there is a cost, send me the bill. Cowboys For Christ has been a real blessing to me. God bless ya'll and thanks, Bobby in Texas

Cowboys For Christ,

I am enclosing my new address. Thank you for sending me the Ranchman. I really enjoy it. I was just released from prison after almost 11 years. Thanks to our Good Lord! God bless each one of you. Shad in Texas

Hello,

I was interested in receiving the Christian Ranchman publication. Thank you so much for your inspiration and sharing God's Word. I've grown up in a rodeo family and was excited to know about Cowboys For Christ! God bless, Sandy in Oklahoma

To those at the Christian Ranchman,

I recently had a chance to view and read your paper. I found several stories inspiring and encouraging! I would very much like to receive a subscription of your paper and your newsletter, also any other Christian reading material. We all need God's Word and to have Jesus as our Lord. Amen. Thank you for caring and sharing. May God bless you all in all you do. William in Florida

Greetings,

Thank you for the Christian Ranchman! The testimonies have been uplifting and I am encouraged as a babe in Christ to do more. The knowledge of Christ and having his love is so important. His being my only example to live by. I feel great seeing Him in others. Please note, this is a request for an address change on the Christian Ranchman. God bless, Robert in Texas

Cowboys For Christ,

I was in prison and now in a half-way house. Can I get the newsletter? I am enclosing my new address. Thank you, Mike in Colorado

Dear Cowboys For Christ,

I wish to thank all who make it possible for us behind bars to receive your Christian Ranchman and your Bible studies. After 30 years in prison our Lord Jesus Christ has seen fit to send me forth into the mission field that is this country. I don't need to tell any of ya'll where our only Hope is. So, I go to boldly proclaim the Word of Truth, the only Truth, because Jesus is the way, the truth and the life, and no one comes to the Father but through Him! I can't think of anything more

COWBOYS FOR CHRIST STATEMENT OF POSITION

Supreme authority over this organization and all its activities is vested in God's own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, and exercised by the Holy Spirit. This must be recognized and practiced as laid out for us in God's divinely inspired Word, the Holy Bible.

Cowboys For Christ is not in competition with any denominational group. It seeks, rather, through God's enabling grace, to be a helper to all local churches, denominations and groups to the extent that they are in harmony with the will of the Almighty God. Its function is to proclaim the Word of God. It is designed for outreach and building up of the Body of Christ, God's blood-bought people, and in harmony with the work of the Holy Spirit is an active force in the Lord's program for the present day.

The message of The Christian Ranchman is the saving grace of Jesus Christ. These messages come to us in a variety of expressions, including testimonies and Letters to the Editor, and each is meaningful in its own way. We pray that the Holy Spirit will minister to each of you that bit of reassurance and comfort your need today.

2021 Cowboys For Christ

Dear Cowboys for Christ,

Once again, thank you for the work that you do and the prayers that you pray. I'm looking forward to being involved in helping many learn about Jesus. Yesterday I celebrated a milestone by completing the residential drug and alcohol treatment here in the prison. It was a ten-month opportunity to learn new ways to make choices and I believe God put me in there to learn how to let go of my shame and quit living in the past.

I am a new man in Christ and a better man every day for the choices that I want to make to help glorify God. Part of the ceremony that I was asked to do was the poetic expression in which I wrote my own poem for this and I enclosed a copy. I hope that you enjoy it as I feel so blessed to have this opportunity to tell my story of Christ in the ways God chooses to use me.

I look forward every day to opportunities and I thank God for this as every day builds our testimony. I often ask myself "am I honoring God with my actions?" I will keep you in my prayers daily. God Bless you and may your days be filled with the peace that Jesus gives us and a hope for things unknown.

Love Always

Checkin Fences

By Tobin Nettifee

As I ride along down checkin fences through the pasture we call life
I look back upon circumstances I've been blessed with as days gone by
The choices that I've made not near perfect I suppose
But choices all the same are mine to make and this I know
I am thankful for this time that God's given me here today
The opportunities that he has chosen for me and those of you that he's put in my way
As I look unto tomorrow and the lessons learned on yesterday
I think of shame and sorrow that once had blocked my way
I leaned on those around me and gave it all away
To the freedom that I know now will help carry me through my day
My hope is for tomorrow to be a better man than yesterday
To love with Grace un-shadowed as I've been shown so many ways
As I come to this new pasture in my ride along this fence
I will lean upon my Master because to me what else makes sense
Remember this old ride and the mended fences left behind
Being thankful to those around you and those that are standing by your side
The life we lead today is the example that we make Look back on those before you and those who follow the steps you take

Dear Cowboys for Christ,

Hello, my name is Chris Williams. I'm writing to send my thanks to you for the subscription that ya'll have blessed me with. I would also like to ask that I may receive an ERV Cowboys for Christ Bible. The Bible that I have is worn out and coming apart. I am also sending a few poems that I have written.

I understand that they are not exactly cowboy logic, but they do have a powerful meaning. One of them, "Angel by my side" is actually my testimony. The other is only my opinion of our country. I thank you for the time and I look forward to hearing from you. Please continue with the things that you are doing and may God continue to bless you so that you can continue to bless others.

Sincerely
Chris Williams

Angel by my Side

By Chris Williams

I went to move a bulldozer, the day my life was changed.
I remember it very clearly, nothing different, nothing strange.
When the tranny disengaged, I went to shut the door,
My foot slipped on the mat, I fell to my back upon the floor.
My back hit the activation rod, that started the track in reverse,
I listen as others tell it, and it sounds like an evil curse.
It broke my leg as it started, jerking me onto the track.
Crushing me between the track and cab, as I lay helpless on my back.
My leg broke two more places, and my hip got pulled apart.
Then my Angel of light showed up, and gently touched my heart.
As I moved to touch this angel, it quickly disappeared.
Suddenly the dozer stopped, they said "you must have hit a gear".
Looking back, I clearly see, the truth of that day,
That I was touched by an Angel, in a very special way,
Giving thanks to this angel fills my heart with pride.
Now I praise my Lord and Savior, or the Angel by my side.

Testimony

By Danielle Jerigian

I was born and raised a devout catholic and went to catholic school from 1-12 and post-secondary school as well.

In my 20s, I desired to know the Word more. I started reading the Bible. I had lots of questions. I started in the OT.....In the beginning ... seemed like an appropriate place to start. Some things seemed so unreal to me. There was a Baptist believer in my office so I would ask her question.... mostly is this real??? At this office, I had plenty of time to read and ask questions. It was wonderful.

It was on the bay, so I could also walk around and soak in GODs beauty and Word daily!

When I was pregnant, I had so much joy that I had a child of God growing inside of me. When the children were growing, I had more questions about the validity of core catholic teachings and delved deeper in my search for truth. I wanted our children to have proper teaching and training. I loved GOD when I was growing up. I would dance and sing hymns and felt so happy and close to GOD but Jesus paying for my sins and dying for me made me always feel so guilty. I wanted the children to know the love of GOD too but not realizing that I needed to know the love of the Messiah.

My husband Jerry and I decided to leave the catholic faith. We both were struggling with the same doubts and both had the desire to train up our children in truth. When we first came out of the catholic church, we tried 2 different churches and attended various denominational studies. Most teachings were overemphasizing sins and were law based.

We were trying to train up our family but seemed to be failing under the law approach. Thankfully, my husband and I had it on our hearts to get baptized. We wanted to get baptized in our creek and invite our family and friends but GOD had a different plan. We accepted an alter call to be baptized in which the pastor, who never even knew us, laid hands on us and set us apart for the Lord.

He said this was something he never did before but wanted to obey the Holy Spirit. At the time, I had no idea what that meant but thankfully it took Jerry and I into a deeper search of truth and relationship with the Lord.

It took me a few more years and a lot more bad teaching to unravel, while diligently seeking GOD, to break free from the guilt and working for salvation mentality. What a journey! I Praise GOD for His faithfulness and teaching me of His redemptive love and bringing me into relationship with Him through His Son!

How would you like to be involved in a ministry that takes the GOSPEL of JESUS CHRIST to Cowboys and Cowgirls wherever they ride the trails of life? We would certainly like for you to join us in a very unique and rewarding ministry, and we will help you get started through the power and guidance of the HOLY SPIRIT. Please pray about starting a local chapter of Cowboys For Christ, especially if you are not afraid of a bunch of hard work, long hours, and eating the trail dust of service to the LORD. It will take boldness, dedication, and commitment, but the sheer joy of saddling up for JESUS CHRIST is worth the effort, and the rewards are totally out of this world. Contact us about a Chapter Start Up Packet, and let's work together to make a difference in your area to change lives for eternity just as Cowboys For Christ has done for over fifty years.

MY ETERNAL DECISION

There is one important decision that each and every person must make some time in their life. The decision to accept JESUS CHRIST as your LORD and SAVIOR guarantees eternal life. No one knows when their life will end, so it is very important to make that decision before it is too late.

The Bible very plainly tells us in Romans 3:23, "For all have sinned". Also, in Romans 6:23 we are told, "For the wages of sin is death". This death actually is referring to eternal death. But the last part of Romans 6:23 reads, "But the gift of GOD is eternal life through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. And in John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Romans 10:9 & 10 explains how, That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. Romans 10:13 for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved" sure includes you.

This very minute you can make the decision for eternal life and by praying this prayer and truly believing you can accept the LORD JESUS CHRIST as your LORD and SAVIOR. The late great D.L. Moody once said, "GOD has put salvation within the reach of everyone, because all you have to do is believe".

Please pray this prayer,

Dear HEAVENLY FATHER, I come to you a sinner and I am sorry for those sins, please forgive me. I know that your SON, JESUS CHRIST died on the cross and rose from the dead to save me from eternal death and I believe that in my heart. Please, Dear JESUS, come into my heart as SAVIOR and LORD. And FATHER please help me to be your child. In JESUS' NAME, Amen.

If you prayed this prayer, please let us know so we can add you to our prayer list. Also, we will send you a Cowboys For Christ Bible to help you in your new life with JESUS CHRIST as your TRAIL BOSS.

important to be doing right now. Please take me off your mailing list. When I get set up where I'm going, I'll hook back up with ya'll and share my testimony and help with some donations. Ya'll take care, keep the faith! Charles in Texas

To Whom It May Concern,

I'd like to start getting a copy of the Christian Ranchman and any correspondence courses you may offer. Thank you so much, John in Virginia

Dear Cowboys For Christ,

Thank you for my new Bible. It is the easiest to read Bible that I have ever seen and read in my 52 years on this earth; a true blessing. My family needs some prayers, please. And my ex-wife is dyslexic and we are trying to work our differences out and I'm trying to save our 28 years together. Can you send her a Bible for us? Thank you and God bless, Johnny in Texas

Greetings Cowboys For Christ and Brother Dave,

You and your ministry are always in my daily prayers. I have finished the 3-part Bibles study series. You said that when I finished all three, just send you a note and you would send me a certificate. I enjoyed the Bible studies and thank you for sending them to me. Also, thank you for sending me a certificate. I am 66 years old and I am still strong in my walk of faith with Jesus Christ; my Master, Lord and Savior. God bless you and all the Cowboys For Christ. Sincerely, Love in Christ, Troy in Texas

Hello,

My name is Bill and this may be the gall darndest thing you've heard in a spell. On Oct. 4 I was sitting in my cell, Kepha Tallis clad, doing my prayers and scripture reading for the 1st day of sukkah (tabernacles) (John 1:2, Lev. 23:33-34.) When my neighbor asked me if I wanted to read something, I said sure 'nuff. I finished my prayers, took up what he'd handed me and lo & behold; the Christian Ranchman. Well, I might be Jewish, but I was raised country, so OK. Now don't get me wrong here! I don't claim no titles, such as

Jewish or Christian (1Cor. 1) but I do adhere as close to the teaching of Moshe and the prophets, as well as Yashua Ha Mashiach (Messiah, Jesus) and the Apostles by the Grace of the Almighty, as possible. Now, this edition was Volume 44 No 5, and within was an article by a feller named, Dave Harvey, "Hell In A Handbasket" and to me as a proud American God fearing veteran, who believes in law and order, despite my situation, that article was pure "salt and light" (Matt 5:13-16). And again, Golden Nuggets by Bobbi Dupertuis, which gives good meaning to the mercy of God complemented by (II Chron 7:14). Therefore, I'd be proud to be put on your list and hopefully receive future copies of the Christian Ranchman. Shalom, Bill in Texas

LETTER FROM RENEE SALZBRENNER

Cowboys for Christ,

The Christian Ranchman arrived in my mail box several years ago when I became the new owner of this townhome. Moving here was a new change for me, arriving here as a new widow after my husband went to the arms of Jesus for his eternal home; now I had to start out on my own. I went to the mail box one day and found your newsletter. Then I found myself reading it and being encouraged by the work of your organization and how you were working to fill the Kingdom of God!!

I grew up on a small South Dakota farm. I loved the farm, loved the cattle (didn't love the chickens) and spent as much time as I could in the barn! I loved horses; dad knew this, but money was tight so I was told, no, I couldn't have one. Then one day my grandfather in Minneapolis MN sent my parents some money to help buy a horse! We bought two inexpensive horses, green broke, and this started my new journey loving and riding my horse. It was always farm pleaser riding, in the pasture or on the gravel roads, or bringing lunch to dad in the field. I was so happy!

Sunday mornings, Sunday evenings and Wednesday nights, you would find our family at the small country Baptist church, with all the other farm families. We were raised in the church and the Bible was the book we know held the truths we were to live by. I married a Chicago city boy in that country church. I left the farm but the farm never left my heart.

Enclosed is a donation from a piece of our family farm left to the three children after our dear mom went to heaven last year at age 95. The donation is in memory of my mother Lorraine Carlson and my wonderful father, Don who went to heaven at the early age of 67 in 1987. I probably should have notified you that the person you were sending the newsletter to, no longer lived here, but I found myself encouraged and enjoyed reading about the work you are doing. "Cowboys for Christ" Amen.

God bless the work you are doing! "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever." Heb 13:8

In His Name,

Renee

A NEW YEAR

Eccl 1:9 What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun.

“Nothing new under the sun” and we now have a new year! Well, you may be asking what does “new” really mean and what does it mean to me? I guess that most of us would have to think about that question for a few minutes and maybe much more than a few minutes. When we think about “new” we usually are thinking about something brand new; like a new truck, a new coat or a new pair of boots. But actually, it would be hard to apply that kind of “new” to a calendar year of 364 or 365 days, as the case may be, because we may be in a new year, but we are still faced with the same old stuff; the same old problems and the same old situations in our lives. There are many that are faced with the same old pain, the same old suffering, the same old heartache and there are some that have to endure the same old loneliness, hopelessness, desperation and guilt. So, this “new year” could be just an extension of the same old year that doesn’t bring “new” to anything. In fact, it seems that “new” which suggest change or different, but when we consider new year it really doesn’t have anything new, at all. That is except for new pages on the calendar.

The current situation of the “old year” in this nation and probably all other nations around the world is that evil is running rampant throughout almost all communities and governments and just about every aspect of the lives of most of the citizen of those nations. We are bombarded with evil, destruction and chaos, all of the time. There certainly is a concerted effort of the news, (there I go again, picking on the lamestream media, which is very much deserved, I might add) to propagate this evil and chaos. There never seems to be a break from the evil, and we only see evil and hear evil, wherever and whenever; and it is exploited to maximize the effect of that evil or lawlessness. There is also a very direct effort to subdue or eliminate anything good, honest or kind, and especially anything “Christian.” To prove my point; at this time most nations around the world have been invaded with a terrible “virus” which is man-made or man developed and it has been turned loose on the world to cause as much fear, pain and death as possible. Yet, much of the information spread by the world “news” tries to put blame on the innocent and convict, by public opinion, those trying to do good, or help alleviate the problems caused by this evil. And instead helping to solve the problems and control the fear, they are using it to further their agenda of evil and corruption.

The terrible situations of this old sinful world may not get much better in this new year. Oh, so very much I wish it would, but I don’t think the adversary is going to take a day off or go on vacation. As we are told in “Isa 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.” The “good will still be called evil and the evil will still be called good” but we must recognize the “good” and do it and support those that are trying to do good. And we must do our part to serve the HOLY GOD, in every aspect of our lives and not be consumed by the “new” that is not “new.” We must be greatly about THE MASTERS’S business and seek HIM, seek to serve HIM and seek to do HIS will.

Children of GOD, I have news for you, good news and real news. The GOOD NEWS of JESUS CHRIST our LORD and SAVIOR. The GOOD NEWS is that one of these days’ things will be ‘NEW’ completely ‘NEW’ and made new by GOD HIMSELF. HE will make a NEW HEAVEN and a NEW EARTH, just as the great prophet Isaiah has so clearly told us in Isa 65:17 “Behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth. The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind.” Wow, we are told that we won’t even remember the things of evil, chaos and corruption. We won’t even remember the terrible things, or people that are working so hard to destroy the good, the joy and the peace of GOD’S children. We won’t remember the anti-Christian movement, the ungodly acts and the terrible works of the adversary and his demons, and even the works of his helpers.

We are told by the Apostle Peter in “2 Peter 3:13 But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.” Did you catch this powerful truth; that in the “new heaven and new earth” we will have righteousness. In fact, the “new heaven and the new earth” will be the home of righteousness. There will be no agendas of evil and corruption and no lies, because the father of lies will not be there. There will be no lawlessness and destruction. Peace will be assured and as stated in “Lam 3:22-23 22 Because of the Lord’s great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. 23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” During these days of turmoil and strife, lawlessness and corruption we must stand strong in our walk with the LORD, because the LORD’S great LOVE! HIS compassions never fail! Great is HIS faithfulness! These are the “new” that we need to know, believe and trust.

Christians, believers and servants of the LORD, listen to what John the Revelator tells us in “Rev 21:5 He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Happy New Year and GOD bless you in the “new year.”

In CHRIST,

Dave

Howdy from Blanco, Texas, y'all!

Halloween 2020 was a little different for everyone this year... Little or no candy... no trick or treating... even the self-proclaimed "real" witches had to wear "fear masks" because of the Covid scare...Lock downs...Overbearing rules about gathering or contact...How about you? How'd you spend your Halloween? Huddled in your home with the lights out so that no one would accidentally think you were available and approachable for some Halloween fun? I think one of my favorite things about being a Christian and follower of Jesus Christ is the total lack of fear regarding worldly things. Apparently, there are others who feel the same way!

We all got together at 8:00am on Halloween at the Blanco Buggy Barn Museum's Pine-Moore Movie Studio set in Blanco, Texas and had a grand time well into the afternoon at the Cowboys for Christ Cowboy Chaplain Rendezvous and Spiritual Shindig – otherwise known as the South Texas Conference. We had almost 40 folks join us in praise, prayer, song, and learning. We ordained four shiny, brand-new Cowboy Chaplains, enjoyed each other's company, did some singing, and shared some meals.

The day started with cowboy coffee, breakfast tacos and donuts and at 9:00am, Dave Harvey led us in prayer and began the ordination service. Every time we do an ordination, I always remember mine and how special it was to me. It was sure clear that it was special to: "Hooter", David, Don, and Tommy. The Holy Spirit was in the room! After that Cowboy Chaplain Ken Nicolas led a training on how to become more accessible and how to draw people to you using environmental factors and non-verbal communication: breaking down barriers, being conscious of how we look and behave, and opening our hearts to those who need us. Right after the training, Cowgirl Chaplain Deb Nicolas brought a lot of great chicken, gravy, and sides for lunch. We all enjoyed the company as we ate.

Then, gunfire erupted! Pistol Packin' Paula was on the scene and entertained the group right there in the middle of Pine Moore Studios movie set main street. Paula's the world's only two-time female pistol spinning and shooting champion and she put on a fine show of fancy shootin' iron spinning, whip cracking fun! Cowboy Chaplain Charles Green still has all ten of his fingers, too! After a fine show we went back to work. Cowboys for Christ President Dave Harvey sure gave us some great training and showed us how to walk in confidence when approaching our missions as Cowboy Chaplains and spiritual first responders.

Dave followed his training up with a most useful question and answer session where we talked about all kinds of things from the practical to the spiritual. We concluded with prayer and a benediction to send everyone on their way and passed out Easy-to-Read Cowboys for Christ Bibles and Christian Ranchman papers for all in attendance. You might think this is the end of the story but NO...!

The next day, Dave Harvey, his wife, his son and daughter in law, and Cowboy Chaplains Deb and Ken Nicolas all made the trip to Luckenbach, Texas to meet up with Cowboy Chaplains Aaron and Deb Toli at their "Bad Days Are for Other People" ministry and cowboy church there. Ken did the music for the service and Dave's message reminded us of the importance of involvement in all aspects of the world to bring Christian values to it! Once again, we were blessed to be in the company of so many great Christian souls who believe in living the Word of God.

In the Christian Cowboy world this year's Halloween weekend was the NFR and the American combined with the APHA World show, at least for Deb and me! We sure thank everybody who came and hope to see y'all soon. May God bless us all and as we close our sermons, "Ride straight, ride strong, ride true and always ride for the Brand! In the name of Jesus Christ, Ken and Deb Nicolas, CFC-CCA Cowboys for Christ-South Texas

Hello Dave,

I really like your recent letter. We are praying hard in Kansas for the truth to come to light, and any fraud to be revealed and eliminated. Thank you for standing strong.

I have attached a photo of our club from Nov. 11, 2020. It was taken by Joshua Smith at the Clifton, Kansas annual Veterans Day parade. Our members proudly carried the American flags.

We recently had a good number of members ride in the Clay Center lighted Christmas parade on Nov. 27th also. This picture I took of our youngest rider and his dad getting his horse ready, may be too dark to use. Several of us also walked along the route and handed out packets of cocoa mix, marshmallows and a candy cane, included was a message from our Cowboys for Christ club.

Merry Christmas to all of you from Kansas,

Kathy Martin, Secretary

GLORY TO THE LAMB

By RANDY ALLEN

It continually amazes me to see how God brings His plans to pass and how many things work together to bring about His purposes. One area that greatly interests me concerning the priests of Israel and the lambs that were sacrificed for the sins of the people. Most of the sheep and goats were raised in the wilderness away from Jerusalem but there was an area just south of Jerusalem where the lambs were raised for the Temple sacrifices. This area provided good grazing and was only a few miles from the Temple. This area had a name; it was called, Bethlehem.

This is why Messiah was born in Bethlehem. The Lamb of God was born in the place where the sacrificial lambs were raised. It was no accident that Mary and Joseph were in Bethlehem and no accident there was no room in the Inn. God's Lamb was destined to be born among the sacrificial lambs of the Temple.

What a humble beginning for the King to be born. God takes the foolish things of this world to confound the wise (I Cor. 1:27). Who else would God ordain to be the first visitors to visit the Christ Child, but the shepherds who were always there for the birth of the lambs. (Luke 2)

I am so grateful that this little Baby born in a stable would grow up into a man and shed His blood for my sins and your sins, so we could be saved and become the children of God. Glory to the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

Pray for our country.

A Living Memorial

Death, as Christians understand it, is a change in the form of life; it is not a cessation of life. Those who have been given eternal life in Christ Jesus will spend a few fleeting moments here on this earth. The rest of eternity is spent in the presence of God.

Service in the name of Christ can also live on, even though the servant has gone to his heavenly reward.

A living memorial in the name of a loved one, in the form of contributions, bequests or gifts to the work of Cowboys For Christ, will be acknowledged with a reproduction of the Keith Avery drawing, "A Time For Looking Back". Keith's poem accompanying the drawing, "Checkin' the Back Trail", will also be included with the reproduction of the drawing, in a framable presentation which acknowledges the receipt of the gift.

Put your hand to the plow and don't look back!!!

By Bobbi Dupertuis

As we think of the people who use a plow who work diligently year-round and never stop. A big yahoo, hoorah for them. Their commitment to make it work, makes them my heroes. They get up before the sun rises and retire after it sets. They are the backbone of America. They usually work till exhausted and with very few resources. In Luke 9:62 Jesus said, "No one having put his hand to the plow and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God" He was referring to a man who needed to bury his father. He was wanting this man to go build the kingdom. We all have excuses as to why we can't do what Jesus has told us to do. It could be we feel weak, we are exhausted from doing our other job, or we are out of resources. Throughout the bible Jesus lays out specific strategies to follow. The man behind the plow usually does not have the luxury of giving up, or falling into other feelings such as despair. He doesn't just do another day; he lives for the good life that is within his reach.

Let's take lessons from the man behind the plow and remember when we are at our wits ends, God lives there. The farmer unflinches bravery and energy, and sometimes is out in the field whistling a little song. He certainly is diligent in leading his family at the supper table in giving praise to God for every season that they might be in. As they depend on God. They praise Him for the weather, they praise Him for their neighbors who lend a hand when needed, and always make time to present their best at the Sunday meeting time. They know their Scriptures well like in Hebrews 10:23 that says, "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering for He who promised is faithful" And the next day during planting season he grabs the plow, hangs on, and doesn't look back. We know the farmer doesn't look back. why is this? Because his furrows would be crooked, then the next row, he would have to do crooked, and his field would be a mess. I love when they live each moment with the awareness of God's abundant generosity. They know it is a gift from God. For you see farming is serious work, and is a risky business, and a way of life. It's not just a job, and sometimes, it's not even enough to make a living in the bad years.

In our days of convenience, it's hard for us to even imagine what we see, yet alone something that we put in the ground and there is no evidence of a crop for a long time. Their faith overrides many unknowns. They are committed to sacrifice and for the long haul. We all like certainty and control. We let it be easy, to take our eyes off the prize, to look back, to falter, and even to fail. Thanks be to God for the grace we are offered, for the love that is freely given, for the blood and tears that were shed for us, and for the hope that keeps us plowing, no matter how many times we have made crooked furrows, and took our hands off the plow.

On the ranch the farmer constantly has to check his fields because the areas have to be cleared so the animals don't get tangled up when they are hooked up to the plow. We get ourselves all in a bunch by the ins, habits, and other things that draw us away from God. In Galatians 5:1-25 Jesus brought us all in, so we could all know the truth, and so we could do this life well. But unless our lives are looking towards the Kingdom, and keeping our eyes focused on Jesus, we do nasty evil things to one another, but our mighty God desires that His children, who are called by His Name walk in truth, trust Him and His ways, and produce good and tasty fruit; such as love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness. The good crops come from the diligent hard work and not the way of the flesh, or what the easy way that leads to destruction would have you believe is the truth. It is walking daily, reading the Word, finding ways to serve others just as the farmer does. He has counted the cost and walking the walk to see good crops produced. Keeping his hand on the plow and not letting go.

In Luke 9:51-62 It talks about Jesus steadfastly setting His face towards Jerusalem. He sent messengers ahead. they did not receive him and his messengers wanted to bring down fire from heaven, for not receiving Jesus. Jesus got stern at times, snarky even. He reminded them that He came to save lives not destroy lives. Sometimes we want others to respond so much, we forget why we want them looking at Jesus. Jesus reminded them that if they followed Him, He didn't even have somewhere to lay his head. Jesus even came across as unfeeling, when he said to the man who wanted to go bury his father, let the dead bury the dead. Jesus is focused on what the Father has instructed Him to do. Jesus is strong, He didn't cut them much slack. The farmer is determined, he sets his face towards the task that needs done for the day. He is steadfast and strong, focused on what is ahead.

There is a song sung when the civil rights movement was going on that said, "Ain't gonna let nobody turn me around, Ain't gonna let nobody turn me around, I'm going to keep on walking, marching up to the freedom land. "Walking as a follower of the Lord is serious business. The very idea of freedom, that comes from knowing Him, and even harder the serious commitment it takes, to walk in truth for the cause. The followers were a slave to one another. They walked the freedom walk to have the liberties. Jesus came down from heaven and proved it could be and had to be done both by His life and His death. We walk in the freedom and liberties of being in right standings with Jesus because of the work that was done at the cross, and the blood that was shed. Jesus walked a walk of faithfulness, and with the ultimate selflessness, and dedication. We minimize how hard it is to love that much for one another, and to cultivate the fruits of the Spirit. It is difficult to stay on course. But Jesus did. He kept His eyes forward, as what He had to do, and never looked back or got off course. We can't just do what we want. In Galatians 5:13 it states that we can't use our liberty for opportunities of the flesh, but through love to serve one another. Some are attracted to the walk at first, then they don't stick with it and return to their previous ways.

We are in a covenant relationship with God as a bride and groom have committed their lives one to another. We are life partners. Challenges and trials only strengthen our relationship. Don't be like some folks who just give up, finding something easier, or prettier, or younger. Count the cost. Eternity is worth the work. Jesus arose from the dead and so can we if we keep our hand on the plow and don't let go. This helps you to learn and grow spiritually. Keep moving forward with Jesus into deeper, intimate, vertical, relationships. We can be bold and courageous and face our fears, keeping our eyes on the road as like when you were learning to drive. If you look back, you will second guess yourself, and can guess yourself into a paralysis state. If you keep looking back you will mess up the whole thing. Looking forward there is a clear path ahead. For today, there is one task ahead. Be future oriented. Press on. Keep your eyes on the prize. Use endurance, do the hard work, using your God-given strength.

Martin Luther King said once, "I prayed a prayer, and I prayed out loud that night. I said "Lord I'm down here trying to do what's right. But Lord I must confess that I'm weak now. I'm faltering, I'm losing my courage, and I can't let the people see me like this because if they see me weak and losing my courage, then they will begin to get weak" Be the leader God will develop you to be. To see the impossible end.

Guatemalan poet Julia Esquivel wrote a closing prayer to help with your journey forward. It is based on Luke 18:1, "Jesus said, you ought always to pray and not faint. So we do not pray for easy lives, we pray to be stronger men and women, and we do not pray for tasks equal to our powers, but for power equal to our tasks. Then the doing of the work will be no miracle-we will be the miracle. Every day we will wonder at ourselves and the riches of life, which has come to us by the grace of God. Keep your hand to the plow and don't look back. Read Luke 10, then go and do likewise. choose the good part which cannot be taken away. Love your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.

Jesus showed us the way, He is the truth, and the life, no man comes to the Father but by Him. Keep your hand to the plow and don't look back. By his grace, I am saved. blessings and love to all, Bobbi.

Mid-South Conference

By Chaplain T W Lawrence

An amazing event happened at the end of October in a small barn at the Mercy Acre Farm, just north of Ringgold, Georgia. The "first ever" Midsouth CFC Conference was held. Sponsored by the Redeemed Riders Chapter, it was the heartfelt inspiration of chapter president, Skeeter Spaulding. Local Chaplain Cindy Kenner's fine efforts certainly made all of the moving parts work together well.

The event opened with a prayer by the local county tax commissioner, Gary Wayne Autry. Farm ministry manager Susan White welcomed all of us. She extended the invitation for us to enjoy "My Father's Prayer Garden" at the farm while we were there. Susan also provided a wonderful lunch for everyone who attended.

As a special treat, Rebecca Hampton, leader of the Cowboy Church in Jerusalem (Jerusalem, GA that is) brought a group of cowboy youngsters from her church to sing a collection of hymns and songs. They were great.

But we were also blessed to hear the singing and guitar playing of Scott Brown, senior pastor of Brand of the Cross Cowboy Church nearby. His selection of hymns and tunes was inspiring to those gathered.

Dave Harvey gave the main address following the ordination of the newest chaplain, Crystal Bowers. She traveled all the way from Nashville for her ceremony. Crystal's remarks following the officiation brought us all to tears.

Chaplain Mike Gentry gave a brief testimony, well-spoken and concise. He traveled all the way from Ohio pulling his horse in a trailer behind his big truck. Together with Chaplain Karen Burgoon, and her husband Joe from North Carolina and Dave Harvey, a trail ride was organized taking advantage of the scenery at nearby Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park. It finished sometime after dark.

Everyone declared the conference a huge success and are now looking forward to see what Skeeter and the others can put together for next year. God Blessed everyone who attended the event.

Crystal & Dave

Just Horsing Around

By Chaplain Matt Wagner

After hearing of the disappointing news that the Red Stegall Wagon Train was cancelled, we (Matt & Melissa Wagner) were informed that the White house was coming to visit (Terry & Janet White) They were scheduled to go to Texas that week and plans were changed. We contacted several other teamsters and informed them of the plans to have another fun filled weekend and sharing Jesus along the way.

Friday October 16th, we left before daylight with horses and wagons/buggies in tow, headed to Jamesport, MO which is the largest Amish community in the area. Via horse drawn vehicles we went to several of the Amish shops, visited with local families (Amish & English) distributing Christian Ranchman along the way.

Saturday the ladies watched faith-based movies while the guys made repairs and modifications to the horse drawn vehicles. That evening we drove teams and wagons into St. Joseph for supper at The Hoof & Horn restaurant near the stockyards. Once again, we had the opportunity to minister to folks that were attracted to the horses and wagons.

Sunday morning included a cold and windy wagon drive to Dekalb Christian Church for worship. A weekend full of food and fellowship, with opportunities to present the gospel and share testimonies along the way.

Testimony of Michael L. Hardy

As a boy growing up in rural Kansas, I was raised in a Baptist household. My great great Grandfather was a circuit rider. My great Grandfather was a preacher, and my Grandfather was an elder in our family Church. Going to Church as a child was expected. As the years passed and I became a know-it-all kid at 17 and graduated from High School, ran off and got married, then enlisted in the military.

My wife was not a very Christian woman and I let my faith go by the wayside. Fast forward from the late 60s to early 80s I joined a motorcycle club. This led to further drinking like I did in the service. I do not blame this on two tours in Vietnam but on not having God in my life. After constant fighting for 30 years, I had all I could stand and got a divorce. I met a wonderful woman at work, a relationship developed, and we were married.

I started going back to Church, the Church folded, and I stopped going to Church. I then found out as a result of Agent Orange that I had developed stage 4 cancer. As I was taking Chemo Therapy for 6 months, I prayed to God to forgive all my sins. I really wanted God in my life. My wife and I both felt that we were trying to live our own lives. My treatments ended, we found another Church, and have been active for four years. I felt that I was lacking something in my life.

While visiting my Mother-in-Law, I was led to pick up the small-town newspaper, saw an ad about a Chaplains course. I called, enrolled, completed, and was ordained. God opened a door for me and I have turned my life over to him with trust and faith in him to guide me through life. I am now a Chaplain for three different organizations. I am serving an awesome God both in and out of Church. God has allowed me to be cancer free for four years. God has allowed me to be stable in my life and blessed me with an awesome wife of 26 years to share it with.

I give praise to God everyday for all he has done and led me to do in my life. I now know what serving a loving, forgiving, and all-powerful God is really like.
